

ALEXANDER IBARRA

FILMMAKER, WRITER,
DIRECTOR, PRODUCER,
PHOTOGRAPHER,
CINEMATOGRAPHER,
VIDEOGRAPHER

PERSONAL PROFILE

Independent filmmaker with experience in screenwriting, directing, and cinematography/photography. Strong passion for narrative filmmaking, as well as documentary and commercial media projects.

SKILLS & ABILITIES

- Fluent in Spanish. Currently learning to speak Portuguese.
- Experience with Canon cameras, including Canon EOS C100 and Canon EOS Rebel SL2.
- Experience with Premiere Pro, Adobe Audition, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator, and Adobe Lightroom

CONTACT INFORMATION

(541) 880-4908
ialex6333@gmail.com
www.alexanderibarra.com
Costa Mesa, CA 92626

FILM EXPERIENCE

Worked as a Director of Photography for a documentary filmed at the Lava Beds National Monument in Tulelake, California for Purcell Productions LLC. April 2017, Worked as a cameraman and editor in Portland Oregon for the Western Psychological Association conference on 'Women who Wonder'. April 2018, Worked as a Director of Photography and Screenwriter for the student produced short film 'Dios' at Pacific University. November 2018, Completed first feature length script. Currently seeking grants for funding to produce and direct an independent feature length film centered on Chicana identity.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Videographer

Tualatin Hills Nature Park (2019 - 2020)

Filmed and edited many informational videos for the parks around the Washington County area.

Marketing and Communications Manager

Pacific University Student Multicultural Center
(2019 - 2020)

I held the position as the Marketing and Communications Manager for the Student Multicultural Center located in Scott Hall on the Forest Grove Pacific University campus. My duties included advertising events for the center which included creating promotional posters as well as promotional videos, which I directed, edited, and produced. I have also designed many logos for the center and cultural clubs on campus that were turned into clothing and stickers.

EDUCATIONAL HISTORY

Pacific University

(2017-2020)

Bachelor's Degree of the Arts in Film and Video.
2020

I graduated from Pacific University in the Spring of 2020, attaining a Bachelor's degree in Film and Video. Prior to that, I transferred from Klamath Community College. I graduated with a Film and Video major and a minor in Spanish.

My accomplishments include:

- Vice President for the Association of Latinx and Ally Students (ALAS)
- Public Relations for The First Generation Student Success Association (FGSSA)
- Awarded with the certificate of "In Recognition of Artistic Vision" of the 2020 Film and Video class.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

At the fourth annual Klamath Independent Film Festival, my short film 'Windows' was selected to be featured during the short film selections. I was also a cameraman and editor in Portland Oregon for the Western Psychological Association conference on 'Women who Wonder.' My short film "Dairy" was selected to be screened at the 1st annual Gateway Film Festival in Forest Grove, Oregon.

In June 2019, I was selected with 11 other students to partake in a research institution for the Arts and Humanities called Undergraduate Research, Scholarship, and Creative Inquiry (URSCI). My research was focused on the discrimination of the Rohingya Crisis where my group and I created a children's book titled 'Hayma's Journey' that was donated to the Rohingya community in Portland, Oregon.